

COMMUNIQUÉ

UNESCO – ASCHBERG BURSARIES FOR ARTISTS PROGRAMME 2012

Applications are invited from creative writers, musicians and visual artists between 25 and 35 years old for participation in the UNESCO-Aschberg Bursaries for Artists Programme 2012.

2. The Programme aims at promoting the mobility of young artists through art residences abroad and recognizes the important contribution of artists in the creative process of nurturing the diversity of our cultural expressions.

3. Further information regarding the application requirements and closing dates may be obtained from the UNESCO's website - www.unesco.org/culture/aschberg.

4. Applications for the bursaries should be sent directly to UNESCO or to the awarding agency, as applicable. However, applicants are requested to inform the Mauritius National Commission for UNESCO in writing of their participation in the above Programme.
