

Communiqué

ZEI Academy in Comparative Regional Integration

The Center for European Integration Studies (ZEI) is organizing from 5 to 16 September 2011 the fifth ZEI Academy in Comparative Regional Integration at the University of Bonn. This consists of sightseeing tours in Cologne and Bonn, lectures, panel discussions and workshops with German and European experts, excursions to EU Institutions in Brussel and to the European Central Bank in Frankfurt.

The target groups are young academics from non-European regional groupings or those, who are interested in regional integration or comparative regional studies as well as young researchers or postgraduate degree holders with a background in European studies, Regional Integration studies, International Relations, Politician Science, Economics or Law.

Information regarding application and other details are available on the ZEI homepage: <http://www.zei.de/sumeracademy/summer2011.html>.

Interested candidates are requested to consult same prior to applying directly.

Deadline to submit application is 31 March 2011.

11 March 2011

Ministry of Education and Human Resources
MITD House
Phoenix