

Course: In-Service Training Programme for Fisheries Protection Officers (TP3)

Aims and objectives:

- ❖ To equip the Fisheries Protection Officers with the necessary knowledge and skills to enable them to perform their duties effectively and efficiently.
- ❖ To better enforce the Fisheries and Marine Resources Act and provision of an improved customer service.

Course contents:

- ❖ Introduction and Orientation
- ❖ Fisheries Legislations
- ❖ Building of Court Cases
- ❖ Customer Care
- ❖ Management of Vehicles and Patrol Boats
- ❖ Report Writing Skills
- ❖ Documents at Fisheries Post / Stores Procedure
- ❖ Corruption and Gratification
- ❖ Fish Quality and Good Handling Practices
- ❖ Outboard Motor (Operator Level)
- ❖ The Fish Aggregating Device Fishery
- ❖ Introduction to Safety & Health Procedures
- ❖ Introduction to Basic First Aid and Personal Hygiene
- ❖ Introduction to Meteorology
- ❖ Lagoonal Monitoring
- ❖ Search and Rescue / Life Saving
- ❖ Boarding Procedures
- ❖ Marine Environment/Ecosystems
- ❖ Vessel Monitoring System
- ❖ Boat Handling and Safety at Sea Seamanship
- ❖ Human Resource Management
- ❖ Code of Ethics & Good Governance

Duration: A-9 day training session

Batch I: 12 to 22 May 08

Batch II: 26 May to 05 June 08

Batch III: 09 to 19 June 08

Venue: Lecture Room

Fisheries Training and Extension Centre (FITEC), Pointe aux Sables

Category of Officers: Fisheries Protection Officers

Number of Officers trained: 36 participants