

National Computer Board

KEY TIPS FOR USERS

1. Protect your computer
2. Protect your email address
3. Protect your identity

Spam is commonly referred as unsolicited communications sent in bulk over an electronic media such as e-mail, mobile (SMS, MMS) and instant messaging services, usually with the objective of marketing products or services.

For more details please visit the website:
<http://www.ncb.mu/anti-spam>